

Amy Sells: Professional Biography

Amy Sells is a licensed nursing home administrator with 11 years of leadership experience in the skilled nursing facility sector. She currently serves as the administrator of Corewell Health Rehabilitation and Nursing Center – Cedar Street, a newly constructed skilled nursing facility in Grand Rapids, MI.

Amy began her career at Corewell Health (legacy Spectrum Health) Continuing Care in May 2011 and has been a strong advocate to the residents, families and team members throughout her tenure. She has been a champion of process improvement work and is passionate about regulatory improvements and relationships.

In January 2017, Amy became the Administrator of Continuing Care Rehabilitation and Nursing Center – Fuller Avenue. She has improved the annual survey results, reduced turnover, improved the quality star rating, and has had a drastic reduction in facility reportable incidents through strong collaboration with the survey team. She co-presented at Spring 2019 Joint Provider Training with the Lansing Southwest Team Survey Manager on Facility Investigations.

Amy holds a Master of Health Administration from Grand Valley State University, where she received the Dean's Award for Excellence in Leadership and Service to GVSU.

Amy is also committed to advancing the profession of nursing home administration and has taught courses through Ferris State University including HCSA 461 Nursing Home Administration and HCSA 463 Care Professionals in LTC. She is interested in joining the Health Care of Michigan Board to share her expertise and insights, and to contribute to the improvement of health care delivery in Michigan.
